

Qualifications

England and Wales

- A-levels/Advanced apprenticeship (Level 3).
- Bachelor degree/Degree apprenticeship (Level 6) - a minimum of a 2:1 degree in a subject like business studies or business management.
- Masters degree/Degree apprenticeship (Level 7) - e.g. Masters in Business Administration (MBA).
- There is no set path to entering the professional services industry, each role has unique requirements and requires you to demonstrate your interest and relevant experience. If you're interested in a job, check the requirements in the job advertisement.

Scotland

- Highers/Advanced Highers/Foundation Apprenticeship (SCQF Level 6).
- Honours degree/Modern or Graduate apprenticeship (SCQF Level 10).
- Masters degree/Graduate apprenticeship (SCQF Level 11).
- There is no set path to entering the professional services industry, each role has unique requirements and requires you to demonstrate your interest and relevant experience. If you're interested in a job, check the requirements in the job advertisement.

278,300 estimated job openings by 2027

Professional services; looking at the sector.

Useful skills

- Creative thinking
- Practical and analytical thinking
- Problem-solving
- Clear communication
- Collaboration
- Organisation and time management
- Curiosity
- Credibility

£48,880-
£53,040
average salary

Related subjects

- Business
- Economics
- Engineering
- Finance
- Mathematics
- Science

1.5m people currently employed in sector